Flore Andre Holtsman, 89, passed away peacefully Friday, August 7, 2020, at home surrounded by her family after a short illness.

Born in British Columbia in 1930 and immigrated to Thousand Oaks, California with her mother, Marie Louise Morreau. Flore attended grade school in Southern California before moving up to Chico to attend High School to be closer to family and cousins. Flore later met her husband, Lester Earl Holtsman, of 68 years and they raised two daughters in the Chico area.

She is survived by her daughter, Pegi H. Wood, and husband, Dana L. Wood of Conroe, TX, son-in-law, Steve Brower of Reno, Nevada, and Stan Jensen of Boise, Idaho. Lovingly known as Grandma to her grandkids, Tyler Brower and wife, Stacy of Reno, Nevada, Abby Watson of Las Vegas, Nevada, Austin Wood of Austin, Texas, and Taylor Wood and wife, Teran of Conroe, Texas, and great-grandchild, Avery, Evan, Colin, Amelia, and Everett as well as many cousins, nieces, and nephews. Flore's family always knew where to find her stash of sweets in the cookie tin or the dark chocolate hidden ready for everyone's visit.

She is predeceased by her husband, Lester Earl Holtsman, and daughter, Lori H. Jensen.

Flore had a passion for quilting and spending time in the yard keeping it colorful and green. Flore loved spending time at her weekly bridge gatherings sharing family stories and participating in water aerobics at the neighborhood gym, In-Motion.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to the team at Enloe Hospice and her many kind and compassionate neighbors.

“ My sincerest condolences to all the family. You've had so many losses over the past year and a half and my heart goes out to you. I will dearly miss my sweet neighbor of 30 years. We shared many conversations through the fence and exchanged products of our gardens throughout the year. Flore's neighborly watchful eye and her generosity were much appreciated by me and my children.
